

*Foreign/International health insurance: In case of uncertainty about cost absorption of treatment one may call the Service for International Patients of the Universitätsklinikum in Dresden. They help with questions and probably send the caller to medical services on the hospital area. It's appropriate to call if the affected person is either a tourist or in Dresden for short time for other reasons (business trip, short employment relationship, semester abroad, etc.)

**Kassenärztliche Vereinigung Sachsen